Quieting Down Effect of Yesterday's May ..... Buoyant Temper Is Felt.

Indications That Spain Is Not

New York, May 2.-The disappointing esponse of London to the boom in stocks May here yesterday was something of a dampener upon the speculation at the

First prices were generally a shade lower. As the hour advanced, however, the market began to show the effect of realizations, and the reaction went a little farther. There was no heavy selling pressure, but London was a seller, and ome commission houses took profits:

The quieting down of yesterday's buoyant temper was regarded as natural, in view of the extent of the previous advance, and the indications that Spain was not yet disposed to sue for peace.

Government bonds were unchanged, except for a decline of 1-2 per cent in the Stocks at noon were dull and lower, and over were noted.
